You are on a journey.
You will learn about the lives of some of the best men that ever lived.

These were men sent by Allah.
You will learn why they were sent,
who they were sent to,
and what lessons we can learn from their lives.

They are the Prophets.
The first of them is Adam ﷺ
and the last of them is Muhammad ﷺ.
As with any journey, you will need to know where you are going; having a map of your route certainly helps! On the following pages you will see a map of the Prophets mentioned in the Noble Quran. Follow the path on the map carefully and look out for the names you have heard before.
From amongst all of these Prophets of Allah, five are mentioned in the Quran (in Surah Al-Ahzab, Ash-Shura & Al-Ahqaf) as or Prophets of great determination. They are Nuh, Ibrahim, Musa, Eesa and Muhammad. We shall learn about the life of Muhammad in detail in a dedicated subject in the Stem Series. For now, we’ll take a closer look at the other four Prophets mentioned, as well as the Prophet Adam; the first Prophet of Allah. Take a look at the map on the next page...
As you may have guessed from the title of this book, you’ll be learning about the story of Ibrahim ʿa. You can discover more about the other Prophets in the rest of this series.

As you travel, you will need to acquaint yourself with some essential information. Without it, you will be lost, and may not reach your final destination. Read up on the following symbols to find out what to expect along your way.

Before you begin any journey, you need to know where you are going and why you are going there. With all the stories in this book, your aim is broken into three parts. You must be able to read the story yourself, summarize the main events and place them in the correct order. You should be able to understand the finer details of what occurred in the story. Finally, you could be able to understand the reasoning behind some of the story events. You will be able to test whether you have achieved your targets at the end of each section by attempting to overcome the obstacles in your way.

One of the other things you need to do before any journey is to prepare! Pack Your Bags involves reminding yourself about the meanings of some essential key words that occur in the story.
Once you have set off on your journey, you’ll need to think actively about what you are learning. Reflections occur in the middle of stories and get you to ponder a little deeper into the events.

Once the reading is over, you’ll take a well earned rest at the Rest Point. You’ll do some light word-work to ensure you understand the language used in the story.

Now begins your chance to prove what you have learnt. You have to cross three different obstacles, each getting harder as you go along. By completing each of these you will ensure you have covered the aims of your journey. First you have to Jump the Fence by proving you know enough about the events of the story.

The next task is a little harder. Cross the River is all about checking whether you picked up the smaller details of what actually happened in the story.

The final and hardest task is called Climb the Mountain. Here you have to show an understanding of why things happened the way they did in the story.
After completing each section, be sure to have your answers marked in The Farewell Mark chapter at the end of this book.

Well that's all you need to know before you start!

It's time to begin your journey...

بسم الله

Bismillah!
The story of Ibrahim is a long journey, so there's much preparation to do! The first of it starts here. Take a quick look at the words to see which ones you already know. We'll do some work on these and other words at the end of the story.

ILL
ANGRY
HARM
NICELY
MEAN
BURN
Ibrahim was a Prophet of Islam.
May Allah bless Ibrahim.
ʿAlay-his-salaam

The people of Ibrahim were bad.
They prayed to stones.
They did not pray to Allah alone.

All the people went out one day.
Ibrahim said he felt ill.
He stayed behind.
He had an idea in mind.
What idea do you think Ibrahim had in mind? The axe in the picture on the left may give you a clue. Write your thoughts below and continue reading to see if you are correct.
Ibrahim went up to the stones. He gave them lots of hits, and broke them into little bits.
The people came back.
They were very angry.
But Ibrahim spoke to them nicely.

"The stones do not help you.
They do not even harm you.
All that you have is from Allah.
He made you what you are.

Pray to Allah alone.
Do what Allah likes."

That is our aim in life.
The people did not care. They were very mean. They wanted to burn Ibrahim.

They made a big fire. They threw Ibrahim in. But Allah made the fire cool. So the heat did not harm him.

Allah saved Ibrahim. He was Allah's friend. Allah made him win in the end.
Ibrahim was just a young boy in this part of the story. So you can tell how brave he was! Before we move on let's do a little word-work. In the spaces provided below, write the meanings of the words listed and provide a sentence using each word where asked.

Who was Ibrahim?
We've already written a summary of the story, but the events are in the wrong order. Read the sentences below and then rewrite them with the events in the correct order.

The people tried to burn Ibrahim. The people of Ibrahim prayed to stones. Allah saved Ibrahim so the fire did not harm him. Ibrahim smashed the stones.
Let's try to explain things in a little more detail. All of the statements below are incorrect. Correct each statement and rewrite them in the spaces provided.

1. Ibrahim told his people the truth in a strict and angry way.
2. Ibrahim made a house from the stones.
3. Ibrahim told his people that the stones were hard to break.
4. Ibrahim said that our aim in life is to do whatever we like.
Finally, for each question, select one correct answer from the list of four possible answers. Write the letters of your answers in order in the squares at the end. What word do they spell?

Why did the people of Ibrahim pray to stones?
- Q: They thought the stones could talk.
- R: They thought the stones could walk.
- S: They fell for Shaytaan’s trick.
- T: They thought stones could not be broken.

Why did Ibrahim stay behind when the people left?
- T: He wanted to rest.
- U: He had a plan in mind.
- V: He just wanted some peace and quiet.
- W: He wanted to escape to another town.

Why were the people angry when they came back?
- O: They saw their stones smashed to little bits.
- P: Their day went bad because it was raining.
- Q: They got hurt when they went out.
- R: They forgot to take Ibrahim with them.
The broken stones told them to burn Ibrahim.
They wanted to help Ibrahim.
They wanted to show how strong they were.
They saw Ibrahim as a danger to their way of life.

Allah told the fire to be cool for Ibrahim.
It was a cold day.
It began to rain and so the fire was put out.
A strong wind blew the fire out.
Now it's time for the story of the Zam Zam well. Take a look at the words below. Perhaps they will give you a clue about the story. We'll do some work on these and other words at the end.

WELL
HILL
He went from place to place,
calling people to Allah.

Ibrahim had a wife called Haajar.
They had a son called Ismail.
He was a Prophet of Islam.
May Allah bless Ismail and his mother.
‘Alay-himas-salaam
Ibrahim went to a valley.
   It was a plain land.
   There was no water there.
   There was only sand.

Ibrahim was not alone.
Haajar and Ismail came too.
Ibrahim left them there.
It was what Allah told him to do.

Ismail was still a baby then.
It was very hot and dry.
Ismail began to cry.
How do you think baby Ismail and Haajar must have felt in the baking heat? Why do you think Ismail began to cry? Write your thoughts down in the space provided below:
Haajar went to look for water.
   She ran up and down.
   She got to the top of a hill, but there was no one around.

Haajar then looked at Ismail. She saw lots of water near him. It was coming from the ground. She came running down.
She gave the water to Ismail. Then Haajar drank some too. That water is called Zam Zam. It is still there for us to drink too.

Allah saved them in that land. That land is called Makkah. Before it was only sand.
There were lots of new words in that story! Let's see if you understood them all. In the spaces provided below, write a sentence using each word.

Valley

Who was Haajar?

What is Zam Zam?

What is Makkah?
Jump the Fence

Write a summary of the story using only one sentence in each line. Think about the sentences before you write them down.
Crossing this river should be really easy now after jumping the fence. Fill each blank space in the statement below using a suitable word from the list provided.

Ibrahim had a wife called....................... They had a son called............... who was also a .................. of Islam. Ibrahim took his family to a .................. that was just plain sand. After Ibrahim left, Haajar went to look for .................. She later saw a .................. of water coming from the ground. Haajar gave the water to baby Ismail who was very .................. To climb the mountain, there are two questions you need to answer. One of them needs you to do some exploring. Write your answers in the spaces provided.

1. Why did Ibrahim take his family to the valley?

2. Find out about the rites of Hajj & Umrah. What are the links between them and this story?
It's time to move on to the next story. There's a hard word in the preparation for this one! Have a look at the words below to see which ones you already know. Try to find out the meaning of the first word before you begin. As ever, we'll do some work on these and other words at the end of the story.

DREAM
BRAVE
Some time went by.
Makkah was now a town.
People had come from all around.

Ibrahim went back to Makkah.
He went to see his son.
Ismail had now grown.

Ibrahim saw a dream.
In it, he was sacrificing his son.
It was an order from Allah.
It had to be done.
How do you think Ismail must have felt about his father's dream? What do you think he would have told his father? Write your thoughts down in the space provided below and continue reading to see if you are correct.
It was a test from Allah.
Ismail was very brave.
He told his father,
"Do what Allah says."

Ibrahim laid Ismail down.
He was about to sacrifice his son.
But now the test was over and done.
Ismail did not have to bleed.
Now there was no need.
He was safe.
Allah put a sheep in his place.

Ibrahim and Ismail passed the test.
They did what Allah said.
Before we move on, write each of the words in a sentence.

DREAM

BRAVE

FATHER
Fill in the missing letters and events. Then write the letters of the events in the order they occurred in the four squares below. What word do the letters spell?

Ibrahim was about to sacrifice his son.

Ismail told him to do what Allah says.

Allah placed a sheep in Ismail’s place.
Your drawing skills will be put to the test here. Write your answers to the following questions in the spaces provided. For the first question, help describe your answer by drawing a picture of the way Makkah used to look before compared to now.

1. How was Makkah different compared to before?
2. Which Islamic event relates to this story? Explain the link between what Muslims do in this event and what happened in this story.
Now try to climb the mountain. Simply write your answers to the following questions in the spaces provided. Detail is the key.

1. Why did Ibrahim have to do what he saw in his dream?

2. Why did Ismail tell his father to do what Allah says?

3. Why did Ismail not have to be sacrificed?
There's only one word for the preparation of this story. You've probably heard of it before. See if you can find out what it means before you set off.

KA'BAH
Ibrahim made the Ka’bah. Allah told him to. The Ka’bah is in Makkah. Ismail helped make it too.

The Ka’bah was built from stone. There, you pray to Allah alone. The Ka’bah is the house of Allah. You can face it wherever you are.
Ibrahim worked very hard.
He did not rest.
He passed all of Allah’s tests.

Ibrahim did what Allah likes.
He was Allah’s friend.
Allah made him win in the end.
There's only one word at this Rest Point. It was explained quite clearly in the story. Write down what the Ka'bah is in as much detail as possible and draw a picture to help explain your description.
Cross the River

It's that time where you ask the questions again! Write a question for each of the following answers in the spaces provided.

Ibrahim built the Ka’bah.

Ismail helped Ibrahim build the Ka’bah.

The Ka’bah is in Makkah.

We pray to Allah alone facing the Ka’bah.

The Ka’bah belongs to Allah.
There are just two more questions before we complete the story. Simply write your answers to the following questions in the spaces provided.

1. Why did Ibrahim build the Ka’bah?

2. Why did Allah take Ibrahim as a friend?
Every journey, no matter how long, must come to an end. You have come to the end of your journey through the life of Prophet Ibrahim ﷺ. One of the ways you can measure your success is through seeing how well you did in clearing the obstacles that came in your path. Suggested answers to each chapter are offered in the pages that follow. You are encouraged to have your progress marked.

However, there is more to measuring your success than just clearing the obstacles. One of the most valuable measures is your own thoughts on what you have learnt and enjoyed most. Hopefully, you will take away a treasure chest of lessons from this wonderful and important story, and continue learning more about it in the future. This chapter offers you the chance to judge for yourself what was your most valuable farewell mark.
At the end of a journey, it's always nice to pause and think over what you can most benefit from. Think hard about what were the most valuable lessons you learnt during this journey. Take a moment to think again and select one lesson, idea or thought that you will take away from your experience...
